

We would like you to focus on an area of our current school learning as part of your homework project. These areas of focus are as follows:

- History/Geography: ‘Maafa’- looking at Africa past and present and the development of the slave trade.
- Science: The circulatory system

We would like you to complete 2 choices from the ideas below. These 2 choices should be handed in on Monday 13th December 2021 – Year Group celebration to take place.

Research a famous black Briton. Create a mind map, PowerPoint or produce a fact file, but don't forget to include lots of description. 	Produce an information leaflet on 'The Healthy Body'  Consider the importance of your physical health through diet and regular exercise. Explain how we can strengthen our heart and how important a healthy body is.	Using a black artist as your inspiration, recreate a piece of their artwork.  Here are some artists to get you started: Jean-Michel Basquiat, Faith Ringgold, Kara Walker, Jacob Lawrence
Design and make a game involving facts about the circulatory system. (board game, card game, memory game, observation game) 	Research 'Africa' or the 'Circulatory System' and create your very own quiz.   Remember to make sure that you have the answers so that we can play them in class.	Research the circulatory system. Create a mind map, PowerPoint or produce a fact file, but don't forget to include lots of description.
Make your own model of the circulatory system.  Here are some ideas to help: Make a model of the heart, lungs, or even recreate blood.	Links to PSHE: Create your very own chocolate bar. Why not gather some ingredients and even have a go at making one.  Consider its name, ingredients, price and more importantly 'Fair Trade'. Bring along photos or plans of this experience.

Guidelines

Complete at least two activities to be handed in on the date shown. You can choose to do more activities if you wish after the two are completed. As you know, we have high expectations!

Each week the expectation is that you:

- Read AR book every night
- Practice and learn times tables every day - homework set on Studyzone (completed by the following Friday)
- Practice and learn spellings every day
- Complete your grammar homework – Given on a Friday and due on a Tuesday
- Work on your termly project each week
- Complete homework tasks to the same standard of work produced in school
