PANTOMINE

The Infant School has asked if we could pay £150 for the pantomime. Not sure if this is just a deposit .Karan will go to the Infant school to discuss whether the £150 is just a deposit and if they are expecting the PTFA to pay for the whole pantomime.

The Junior School did not want to have the Pantomime in school and have opted to go the Marlowe again and the teachers do their own pantomime.

FATHERS DAY SHOP

The Junior School shop is week commencing 8th June and the Infant School commencing 15th June. Both schools will pick and then be made up by the PTFA.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Tracey has asked for about £100 for the material etc for the costumes for the Irish Dancing Team who are performing at the Marlowe in July. This was agreed and Tracey will arrange.

Becks said there should be a thank you to the PTFA for contributing to the Astrodome. This has not yet been received.

Heather said the PTFA would run the bouncy castles at the Sci Fi and this would cost 50p for 5 minutes. We would also sell drinks, lollies, water and have a lucky dip.

It was decided that we need to take pictures of every event to go on the website and boards to let the parents know what the PTFA do and this may encourage more members.
