Friday 13th July 2018

We have had another memorable week in school.

All the children went to the Kings Hall on Tuesday to watch the dress rehearsal of A Midsummer Night's Dream. They were spellbound by the story and the children's performances.

The Year 6 children performed twice to our parents; Wednesday afternoon and Thursday evening. To see the children confidently playing their parts to a full theatre filled us all with great pride. I must also mention the children who supported live as the Orchestra – they brought the performance alive with their accompaniment. We have such talented children!

The retiring collection raised £372.25 for Diabetes UK. I would like to thank you all for giving so generously in memory of a previous pupil who recently lost her life to this condition.

Many of our Year 6 children are off to Swattenden next week. We wish them all an enjoyable week making memories with their friends in the penultimate week of their time at HBJS.

ATTENDANCE

	Attendance %	No. of Lates
